

Carron/Monar Raid walking

The remote, high mountains south of Glen Carron and overlooking Loch Monar can best be savoured by this connoisseur's trek. We concentrate on the mountains that can't easily be reached from the road, while journeying between Achnashellach and Strathcarron.

It's perfect territory for enjoying being amongst the mountains without having to carry all your gear up and down them all. Six Munros are the reward and some lasting memories of magical glens.

Please note: Backpacking and wild camping are required on this walking holiday.

Fitness Levels

Due to the remote nature of the trip and lack of easy escape routes, participants should ensure that they have a high enough level of fitness to enable them to complete at least the linear parts of this holiday in full.

Although the distances are not long and we have all day to enjoy the route folk do have to have the ability to carry 30lbs or so on a daily basis - not impossible but some practice is advised. The terrain covered is mainly on paths and tracks, which may be rough, rocky and wet at times plus there is some un-pathed terrain.
