

Trossachs Trail walking

This journey through the Trossachs links Loch Tay with Loch Lomond, exploring hidden recesses of the Loch Lomond & Trossachs National Park, Scotland's first national park.

The Trossachs Trail walking holiday is in four fascinating chunks; 45 miles of tantalising pure magic. Crossing the best known areas of national park gives a really good impression of its rich diversity.

We walk routes which were much frequented in past times by tinkers, traders and drovers but now are quiet, wild places. It's just great!

Due to the nature of the accommodation used on this holiday, early booking (more than 8 weeks in advance) is strongly recommended.
